

7th September 2011 – CAFÉ DES ARTISTES – Berlin

Wednesday, 7th September the opening of John Palatinus' exhibition in Berlin will take place in presence of the artist.

VERNISSAGE IN BERLIN

The Story

Yes - there are countless vintage pictures to be found in books, magazines and - of course - the internet. But there is only one witness still alive that can tell his thrilling story. Our today's normal community standards have been very different just half a century ago. It were pioneers such as John Palatinus who opened minds and doors for our today's liberty. Ten years before the upraise on Christopher Street, only a few blocks away, the raid happened. Fifty years later: A beautiful exhibition, a great story and a very charming artist forming a wonderful event.
